

DIARY NOTES

Executive Director-Comptroller

18 October 1965

1. At the [] meeting this morning the members, plus a number of other personnel interested in the new Planning-Programming-Budgeting System, were briefed on our organizational changes and our scheme for updating the "long-range plan" while at the same time being responsive to the President's new system. Despite the fact that I emphasized that this had all been approved by Mr. Helms and Admiral Raborn, there was a decidedly negative reaction to the whole thing, particularly from the Clandestine Services represented by Tom Karamessines and []. It was obvious that they were disappointed that we did not adhere to the recommendations of the architects of the long-range plan to set up an Agency planner completely apart from and independent of the budget office. Tom also expressed his disappointment that the [] was not given a crack at this before it went to the DDCI and DCI for approval.

2. I had a very pleasant lunch with [] the new Chairman of the Fine Arts Commission, Mrs. Breskin, and Mr. Musing, two of his friends from whom he expects to receive some assistance and advice.

3. I discussed two items with Dick Helms.

a. Dick read and approved the memorandum which I am issuing which says that we will continue to participate fully in the National Interdepartmental Seminar.

b. Dick said that he has not yet finished his discussions with the Clandestine Services on the manpower policy, but he gave no indication that he was about to back down from his previous position.
